Breckenridge Grand Vacations Launches Employee Ski Pass Program

BRECKENRIDGE, COLO. (Sept. 14, 2018) – The perks of working for the state’s top rated employer just got even better. Local fractional real estate resort developer and operator, Breckenridge Grand Vacations (BGV), recently announced a new employee ski pass program.

The Breckenridge-based company has always offered its 600-plus employees an extensive benefit package, which is one of the reasons it was honored as the Denver Post’s Top Workplace in April 2018, and in August, received ColoradoBiz Magazine’s award for Top Company in the Travel and Hospitality category.

According to BGV’s CEO Mike Dudick, the addition of the employee ski pass is the result of feedback received in the company’s annual employee survey. A ski pass program was one of the most frequently mentioned items on the survey.

“Our employees asked for this and we listened,” says Dudick. “We believe that if we invest in our employees, they’ll invest in providing our owners and guests with the best experience. And, we are committed to remaining Summit County’s employer of choice.”

In addition, BGV has been working to bolster its workforce housing opportunities for its employees, as a response to its annual employee survey.

With the addition of the employee ski pass to the bonus program, BGV’s benefit package aims to be the most competitive in the county – with benefits starting at 20 hours per week. These include health insurance and an employer-matched 401(k) plan, employee recruitment bonus, Employee Assistance Fund, Compassionate Leave Program, recreation pass and ski medallion program, tickets to sporting and music events, and discounts on lodging, retail, restaurant, cell phone, car rental and activities.

BGV believes that investing in its employees is critical to the company’s success— and this has led to strong retention rates. Twenty percent of BGV employees have been with the company longer than five years, and more than 40 employees have been with BGV for over a decade.

Breckenridge Grand Vacations is currently hiring for the upcoming ski season, and has 25 job openings in a variety of departments. For more information, go to BGVjobs.com.
